

Web Standards/Dreamweaver Weekend I: Planning and Structuring Web Pages Instructor: Corky Brown
Objectives:	By the end of the weekend, you will:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Have a basic knowledge and understanding of XHTML - Be familiar with current web standards - Have a working knowledge of cross-browser and cross-platform issues - Be able to construct a basic website using Dreamweaver
Recommended Reading:
Required Materials:	A medium in which to transport you files to and from class (a small USB drive or writable CD will do).
Calendar:
(Day one, morning)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - XHTML syntax and structure - Review of basic elements of a webpage (inc. DOM) - Why make a webpage or a website? - What forms of media does information come in on the web? - Setting up Dreamweaver
(Day one, afternoon)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Placing content in containers - Using Divs and Spans - Using Tables - Using images in your webpage
(Day two, morning)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Review of previous day's material - Using the 'style' attribute - Positioning elements
(Day two, afternoon)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Optimizing your webpage - Validating your webpages - Checking with multiple browsers - Create a basic website

Please Note:

The University of the Arts Continuing Education Program reserves the right to cancel or reschedule any course or to change the instructor. In the case of these circumstances, the university is not responsible for supplies that may be purchased in advance.

To have ACT 48 Activity Hours for this course reported to the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) you must complete and return the Request for Activity Hours Submission Form to the UArts Continuing Studies Office and meet all requirements outlined by the PDE.