

Music Education Spotlight

January 2019

Master of Music in Music Education (MM)

“

The University of the Arts provides an exemplar masters level education, along with supportive and dedicated staff and professors. Students are given the opportunity to customize their program as well as pursue additional levels and certifications. Quality, flexibility, and community are what separate this university from the rest. Thank you to The University of the Arts for an unforgettable college experience.

Kimberly Chimento

Alumni

MM '18

MUSIC EDUCATION

Kimberly Chimento is a proud graduate of University of the Arts (2018). She received her Masters degree (M.M.) in Music Education, completed her Orff Certification (3 levels). She graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelors degree from Montclair State University (2013), where she majored in Music Education, double minored in Musical Theatre and Linguistics, and obtained certifications in Music and English as a Second Language. Kimberly took her choir and linguistic background to the next level through UArts coursework and her Masters thesis “Connecting Language Acquisition to Music Literacy.” Kimberly is a vocalist and percussionist. She currently teaches K-6 general music, directs four elementary choirs, and is an active member of NNJOSA. Additionally, Kimberly recently recorded for Eric Whitacre’s “Deep Field Virtual Choir 5.” She also serves as a featured mezzo-soprano at Sacred Heart Church.

