ArtsWeek: UArts

Three Ways to Participate

Non-matriculated: Register for any of our 3-credit graduate courses in Educational Technology, The Arts, Inclusion or Literacy at any time—no application is required!

Graduate Certificates: Engage in 15 credits of focused work that allow you to build expertise in The Arts or Educational Technology.

MEd Programs: Complete a 30-credit Master of Education program in either Educational Program Design or Educational Technology, both of which culminate in a self-directed capstone project.

For information on discounts, including those for PSEA, UArts alumni and Philadelphia School District, visit uarts.edu/sps/policies.

Graduate Degrees + Certificates for Educators

Our programs provide the individual attention and support that are the hallmark of every learning experience at UArts.

The MEd in Educational Program Design is a 30-credit graduate degree for K–12 educators interested in building the expertise to create and develop diverse learning environments for today's students.

The MEd in Educational Technology is a 30-credit graduate degree for K–12 educators interested in deepening expertise in the integration of technology in the classroom. Aligned with ISTE standards, course offerings evolve with the fast-paced field of ed tech.

We also offer Graduate Certificates in:

The Arts
Educational Technology

Summer 2019 core courses will be held at Villanova University, July 8–12. Housing available.

Is a Master's Degree or Graduate Certificate the right fit for you? Visit uarts.edu/med to learn more and apply now and begin earning your MEd this summer!
